TRUSTEES ORGANIZE BRANCH ASSOCIATION

At a joint meeting of school trustees, representing Coleman, Bellevue, Hillcrest and Blairmore, held here the early part of the week, it was decided to form a branch of the provincial trustees association. The new organization was effected with W. H. Chappell, Blairmore, chairman, and Jack Brooks, Bellevue, secretary.

Various matters came before the meeting for consideration, some of which will be introduced at the forthcoming provincial meet. One of these matters is the re-establishment of a provincial library grant for schools.

The question of uniform salary scales will be considered at a later date, as will also the government's offer of assistance towards special tuition for subnormal pupils.

A committee composed of Messrs. Glendinning, Chappell, Strett and Haggarty, was appointed to draft constitution.

Delegates to the provincial convention will be chosen at next meeting.

Present at the meeting were: W. H. Chappell, W. A. Beebe, C. J. Tompkins, Blairmore; J. Brooks, G. K. Strett, Bellevue; P. Haggarty, J. Dudley, Hillcrest; R. Glendinning, H. Snowdon, Coleman.

K. of P. and SISTERS INSTALLED AT HILLCREST

A joint installation of officers of Turtle Mountain Lodge, K. of P. and Mizpah Temple Pythian Sisters took place in the K. of P. hall at Hillcrest on Tuesday night of last week.

Sister Haggarty, assisted by Sisters Hutchison and Carlson, installed into office the following:

Past Chief—Sister E. Stutchbury.
M.E.C.—Sister L. Makin.
E.S.—Sister C. Hollingshead.
E.J.—Sister F. Makin.
Manager—Sister M. Kyle.
M. of R. & C.—Sister Gorton.
M. of F.—Sister M. Clarke.
Protector—Sister J. Makin.
O.G.—Sister I. Taylor.

Bro. J. C. Atkinson, P.D.G.C., assisted by Bro. C. Carlson, P.D.G.C., and Bro. R. Harris, P.D.G.C., installed into office the following knights:

P.C.—Bro. P. Haggarty, who was presented with a past chancellor's jewel.

C.C.—Bro. J. W. Makin.
V.C.—Bro. R. Henderson.
Prelate—Bro. C. Makin.
M. of W.—Bro. R. Watson.
M. of F.—Bro. J. C. Atkinson.
M. of E.—Bro. A. Grant.
M. at A.—Bro. R. Makin.
I.G.—Bro. M. Serra.
O.G.—Bro. C. Carlson.

Following the installation ceremonies, a sumptuous banquet was enjoyed by all. Bro. J. Makin acted as chairman, and a pleasant social programme of songs, music and dancing brought a very successful evening to a close.

COWLEY HAPPENINGS

A piano has been bought and placed in the United church for concert purposes.

Fred Snyder has returned from spending a few weeks' vacation at the coast.

The Ladies' Bridge Club was entertained by Miss Mary Kaye at her home on Tuesday night.

A whist drive was held in the Masonic hall on Wednesday, January 7, under the auspices of the Cowley Women's Institute and in aid of the Woods Christian Home. The prizes were won in the following order: ladies' first, Miss Nellie McWilliams; consolation, Mrs. A. J. Snyder; gent's first, Mr. Patterson; Consolation, Robert Littleton. Around twelve dollars was taken in at the door.

Bill Johnson contends that gravitation is a limit of ten miles an hour.

PROHIBITIONISTS TO MEET FEB. 4, 5

Convention dates for the Alberta Prohibition association are set for February 4 and 5 in Calgary, according to an announcement made by H. H. Hull, secretary. Rev. Ben H. Spence, former secretary of the Dominion Alliance, now attached to the staff of the Anti-Saloon League of the United States, will be chief speaker at the convention.

The conference in Calgary will be preceded by district conventions held in Medicine Hat on January 26; Lethbridge, January 28, and Edmonton January 30, at all of which Rev. Spence will give addresses. This is the custom of the association each year. Further details will be announced by Mr. Hull at an early date.

SUDDEN DEATH OF OLD TIMER

A few weeks ago we announced hearing from "Mormon Bill" Beard, when he boasted of being as husky and live a cowboy as in his earlier days.

This week we regret to have to announce his death at his home in California.

Mr. Beard passed away at Burbank, California, on January the 2nd, after a week's illness of heart failure.

His four sons, Ray, Bert, Wallace and Johnny, were at the bedside, also his faithful wife, who stood by him during his brief illness. The two daughters, Margery and Josie, arrived from the north too late to be with him in his passing.

"Bill" was a son of an old pioneer "Forty-Niner," was well known and highly respected by all for his good-natured and kindly ways, and was very many friends. The remains were laid to rest in the Masonic L.O.O.F. cemetery at Los Angeles on Monday, January the 4th, beside those of his son, who passed away a few years ago.

Mr. Beard and family were well known in this district. What is known as Beard's Camp, south of Blairmore, was named after him.

INSTITUTE PUBLIC LIBRARY

New books available this week are: Non-Fiction—"The Nations of the World." Fifty-two volumes comprising the best histories of the nations of the World. This is a most valuable addition to the library. We are indebted to the Lethbridge Library for it.

Juvenile Fiction—"Feverishness," by Mowbray; "Adventures of Buffalo Bill," by Cody; "With Clive in India," by Henry.

Fiction—"The Blue Bungalow," by Le Queux.

MINERS' SECRETARY AND WIFE HONORED

A pleasant surprise was given Angus J. Morrison, secretary-treasurer of District 18 of the United Mine Workers of America, when his fellow members honored him on the occasion of his recent marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison were guests of honor at a surprise banquet in the Hotel York on Friday noon, when they were presented with a tea service by the delegates to the miners' convention, then in session. R. Livett, president, made the presentation and spoke in terms of appreciation of the service given by Mr. Morrison to the association. Mr. Morrison made suitable reply, thanking the delegates for the presentation.—Calgary Albertan.

Angus is very well known in The Crow's Nest Pass, and we hasten to sympathize with him for having fallen a victim to the marriage plague.

An exchange remarks: "A professional reformer is all right in his place, but the duffer has to die to get there."

At Last! The Truth About PIMPLES

Pimples, acne and blackheads are caused by a modern, disordered system; by those harmful acids and toxins which make your skin break out. So if you want to rid yourself of that ugly, blemished complexion and obtain clear, smooth and soft skin for all times—eyes sparkling like diamonds—superb daily health—take Kruschen Salts.

Kruschen Salts are a perfect blend of the six vital salts which nerves, glands, blood and body organs ought to receive from food if they're to work properly—but it's simply impossible to obtain these salts these days of modern cooking!

Therefore take Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast—this quickly puts back those precious minerals into your system—and drives out harmful acids and toxins, assuring you enviable and glorious youthful beauty and health.

Flowerpot Island

Island in Georgian Bay Turned Over To National Parks Board

Flowerpot Island, in Georgian Bay, has been turned over to the national parks branch of the Department of the Interior. It is situated at the north end of the Bruce Peninsula, and gets its name from two rock formations that resemble huge flowerpots. They have been formed by erosion by the sea, and have trees growing on the top. The parks branch will reinforce the "flowerpots" as their bases are in danger of being eaten away entirely by the action of the waves.

Crows Nest Rates To Churchill

Will Effect a Big Saving To Saskatchewan Farmers

Inauguration of the Crows Nest rates to Churchill on the Hudson Bay Railway will mean an average saving over regular rates of 12.24 cents per bushel on wheat shipped from Saskatchewan, according to calculations made by George H. Smith, freight rates expert of the Saskatchewan Government. Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, in his address at Regina, intimated that rates of the Crows Nest rate basis would be effective on the Hudson Bay Railway.

The average rate reduction, according to figures compiled by the department of railways, labor and industries, is 20.4 cents per 100 pounds. The saving from Regina is 20.4 cents; from Moose Jaw, 20 cents; from Saskatoon, 21.1 cents; from Seman, 20.4 cents; from Melville, 19.1 cents; from Yorkton, 20 cents; Prince Albert, 19.4 cents; North Battleford, 20 cents; Lloydminster, 21.1 cents; and Alsaak, 21.1 cents. This saving is over the mileage grain rates which would otherwise be in force.

Hon. J. A. Merkle, Minister of Railways, Labor and Industries, stated that arrangements have been made by the freight rates branch of his department to carefully compile the schedules of the Crows Nest grain rates to Churchill from all Saskatchewan points. When this work is completed, the Canadian National Railway will file the freight tariff containing the rates with the railway commission at Ottawa.

That the Crows Nest rates should be applied from all Saskatchewan points on flour, oatmeal, bran, shorts and other mill products in order that the movement of these commodities over the Hudson Bay Railway should also receive the benefit of the rates is the opinion of the provincial government. The matter is being taken up.

Saskatchewan Oil Discovery

Another Find Of Oil Reported In The Redway Valley

Another find of oil is reported in the Redway Valley on the farm of Thomas Powley. It is found that when pumping water a greasy substance comes up with the water and when separated readily ignites.

This greasy substance comes up through a string of sandstone and sandstone when split open reveals samples of forest leaves embedded in the rock. P. Bridger, of Redway, Sask., opened up some of the sandstone formation and on splitting the rock found the leaves in almost perfect condition. It shows that at some time the whole of the valley must have been a dense forest.

The farmers are of the opinion that gas and oil abound in huge quantities under the rock formation at less than 500 feet. Mud geysers exist in eight or nine places and seem to be bottomless, continually bubbling with grease and oil.

The Canadian Pacific Railway runs right through the centre of this coal and oil valley from end to end. A government inspector stated that requests have been received to drill in the rock from the leaves in as far as no permission has been granted owing to the compact nature of the village.

The new find of Thomas Powley is just one mile up the valley from the C.P.R. and of course would be less hazardous for exploitation.

Swedish Railways Plant Trees

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JANUARY 18

THE MINISTRY OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

Golden Text: "Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance."—Luke 3:8.

Lesson: Luke 3.

Devotional Reading: Isaiah 40:3-11.

Explanations and Comments

John's Preaching in the Wilderness, verses 1-6.—To John, son of Zacharias, the word of the Lord came (he was made conscious that this was God's plan for him), directing him to go to the Jordan, and preach the baptism of repentance unto the remission of sins; thereby, says Luke, fulfilling the words of Isaiah (Isaiah 40:3-5).

"John baptized that is, he used a purifying rite in connection with his teaching. It helps to remember the distinctness between baptism as practised in the Christian Church and as practised by John. In the church baptism has come to be regarded as a dedicatory rite by some, and by others as an initial and essential rite. But in the first use of it, by John and Jesus, it was a purifying rite. It was a confession, too, but of sin, and the need of cleansing, not, as later, of faith in a person, or a creed, although it did imply acceptance of a man's leadership. To a Hebrew mind it was pre-eminently by symbol as well as by word."—D. D. Gordon.

The Call To Repentance, verses 7-9.—Our poet Lowell speaks of

"A kind of maddened John the Baptist

"To whom the hardest word comes easiest."

and harsh indeed was John's word to the multitude who came to him to be baptized: "Ye offspring of vipers," was the word in which he addressed them. Vipers and serpents were considered emblems of deceitfulness and wickedness; John called Pharisees and Sadducees by this term because, knowing their natural deceitfulness and cunning he doubted the sincerity of their motive in coming to him and he questioned them: "Who thought it worth while to warn you to flee from the Day of Judgment?" The phrase the wrath to come, recalls the picture of serpents in the fields fleeing before the flames when the stubble is set on fire. The coming of the Messiah was expected to be a day of judgment.

Luke 2:23. Since the Pharisees thought themselves so righteous, they should not have feared the judgment; since the Sadducees professed not to believe in it, they should not have been disturbed.

"Bring forth therefore"—If you would escape the wrath—"fruits worthy of repentance," deeds that will prove the sincerity of your repentance.

"A new life is the best and most sublime penance."—Martin Luther.

Fish Farming

New Idea Is Being Promoted In British Columbia

"Fish Farms" are now being promoted in British Columbia. An undertaking is under way to obtain from the Provincial Government a long lease of a small lake which is to be stocked with commercial fish, such as whitefish or lake trout, with a view to providing the general market with fresh water-fish. The fish would be ready three or four years after stocking the lake.

An Automatic Electric Plant

South America's first automatic hydro-electric plant, five miles from Juiz de Fora, Brazil, is reported to be operating successfully. It was opened recently when the Brazilian official closed a switch in an electric substation in Juiz de Fora. Since then turbines have continued to spin although there are no human attendants there.

Genuine Gratitude Compels Tribute.

Mr. Victor Hills, of Thornton Heath, writes:—"For many years I have suffered with that distressing complaint—constipation, and its attendant effects of sick-headache and indigestion. It was a red-letter day for me when a friend recommended me a treatment of Carter's Little Liver Pills, and I can honestly say that results have been truly marvelous. I now enjoy good health and feel that life is worth living. The relief I have experienced compels me to add my sincere tribute." Take Carter's Little Liver Pills. Another Scientific Discovery

Short Wave Radio Said To Out-Venom Of Diphtheria Poison

Science has opened a hitherto unknown opportunity for short wave radio—a newly found power to cut the virulence of diphtheria poison. In one sentence this discovery was summarized by the Society of American Bacteriologists by Wladaw T. Szymanski and Robert Allan Hicks of Western Pennsylvania hospital, Pittsburgh.

"Highly potent diphtheria toxin," they stated, "is found to be diminished in strength by the action of short electric waves, 1.9 and 3.76 meters, at approximately 158,000,000 and 80,000,000 cycles per second."

Diphtheria toxin is the poison which causes the disease and is produced by diphtheria bacteria. The radio waves are the same sort which were announced about a year ago as producing artificial fever in human beings.

"Come," he said at last, "take down those hands or I'll do it for you. Sit down, Angela. If you're really suffering, I'm sorry; but you're a good actress, and you've cheated me too many times. I never mention the Ashleys unless you drive me to it, or—as a warning. God do you think I want to remember?"

She sank onto a divan, and her arms relaxed. Her husband moved nearer.

"You told me," he said, "that if you had a garden—something to work over—you'd be safe. You were frightened then. You probably believed it. But I can see now that the garden is only a pose. It doesn't absorb you any more than does your painting—or your singing; at which you might do something worth while. Nothing has ever absorbed you but the pursuit of man. If you had a child—"

She looked at him, and her lip curled.

"Didn't you once say that I was not fit to be a mother?"

"You're not; but—"

Her eyes blazed.

"I suppose you'd like to see me turn into a drow, like that stupid little moron next door. Two babies in four years! I call it indecent. I don't believe she's seen her back hair in a mirror since the first one came."

I doubt if she's had a new gown since the last. I dare say she'll have a third before she has time to see a dressmaker. That sort always does. She's stupid—too stupid to know her own husband—too stupid to see that a man won't stand her untidy ways. Why, by lifting a finger I could have Nick Hastings eating out of my hand!"

"Take care then, that you don't lift it; but I'm not so sure, I thought you lifted more than a finger the other night, and as I told you then—it didn't work."

Angela laughed bitterly.

"Well, I'll show you that it will work."

"You will not! Do you understand? I don't ask you to promise, because I know you don't keep your promises; but I shall watch, and you know, Angela, things don't escape me."

He moved toward the door as if the interview were at an end; then paused, looking back at the blue figure on the divan. Angela's shoulders had dropped in an attitude of such weariness as she seldom allowed herself. Even her eyes looked tired; and at the sight something hovered wistfully across her husband's face—an elusive thing that seldom came there, wiping away the cynicism, leaving in its place a glimpse of something better that fought unhappily for life. He turned, and going to her side, laid his hand gently on her arm.

"My dear—I don't mean to be unkind. Deep in your heart you know that I have never been unkind—don't you? More than anything in the world, Angela, I desire your happiness. There is nothing I would not do for you, if—if you could be satisfied with me—alone."

"You!"

She sprang up, shaking off his hand as if it scorched her.

"You!"

She laughed, scornfully, and sweeping past him without a glance, ran up the stairs.

For a moment James Halliday stood where she had left him. It was not until the sound of her feet was silenced that he sighed, wearily, like a man who has fought and lost. Then, catching sight of himself in a long mirror, he straightened up, and his lips took on their familiar, unpleasant curve. There was no trace left of the thing that had lighted his face a moment since; and with a shrug that might have been Angela's very own, he went back to his study and the day's work.

CHAPTER IX.

Gay had been gone a month, a month that had brought color to her cheeks and rest to her eyes. She was right in thinking that morbid ideas might live under the same roof with Uncle Sim. His unfeeling kindness—his faith in God and his fellow men—was something before which doubt and suspicion faded away. And the Sundays with Nick had been like a repetition of their honeymoon. One never-to-be-forgotten day they left the babies with Uncle Sim and his housekeeper, and tramped off together, as care-free as two children out of school.

"You just leave your responsibilities with Mr. Benin and me, and forget all about 'em for a spell," said Uncle Sim. "You'll be all the gladder to pick 'em up again when you get back."

"You bet we will!" said Nick, lifting his youngest responsibility for a kiss. "Come on, Gay, Mrs. Benin's knew the ins and outs of infant feeding before you were born. You needn't advise her any further."

"That's right," said Simeon. "Run along now and don't keep Nick waiting. I'll look for you till the cows come home. Gorry! you don't have to look old enough to have two babies!"

"We don't feel old enough—today."

laughed Gay, as they turned away. Simeon, Sonny on his knees, watched them lovingly till they turned the corner.

"It's a good thing to be young," he murmured dreamily, "but it ain't been old, neither, so long as you've got something young around you. Don't hardly know what I'll do when Gay takes these babies back to Blacksville. Wish my old woman could see 'em. Maybe she does. Like as not she knows just how I'm a settin' here with Sonny on my knee. Well, little boy, you want to feed the chickens?"

"Yep," answered Sonny eagerly, and slipping off Simeon's knee, went straight for the umbrella, much to the admiration of his adopted uncle.

As for Gay and Nick, they forgot their cares with amazing ease. They climbed Bear Hill, the nearest approach to a mountain that the vicinity possessed, and later, in the cool of the forest shade, they waded a brook, while Nick built a dam; the task that getting married had interrupted four years before.

It was Gay who reminded him of that long-gone interruption. She sat on a convenient rock, her feet in the water, and watched him work.

"I hated to keep you from building the dam that day, Nick," she said regretfully. "It seemed wicked that you shouldn't do everything that came into your head; but I thought you'd forgotten what was before us, and I was nervous, even while it worried me to stop your fun. I worried me all the way to State Line."

"Idiot!" said Nick, pausing in his absorbing task to throw her a smile of understanding. He worked silently for a while, then stopped to survey the finished product of his labor.

"Some dam, my dear! I ought to have been a civil engineer. Always wanted to, and I bet you, Gay, I'd have made a good one; but uncle wouldn't consider it for a minute."

He came nearer, and sat beside her on the rock.

"Say!" he exclaimed boyishly, "Isn't it great being off here together? How cunning your feet look in the water!"

"Cunning!" laughed Gay. "I'd hardly call them that; though beside yours they do look—well, smaller than usual."

"They're small enough; and they haven't been spoiled by the mills, heels or fair neighbor persisting in wearing. I wonder what she'd think, Gay, if she could see us now!"

Sudden color flooded Gay's face, and she drew one foot up out of sight.

"You mean Mrs. Halliday? Why?"

"I suppose she'd think it was—impossible."

Nick shook with laughter.

"Gay, you're the funnest kid I bet just remembering Mrs. Halliday and her fastidiousness made you feel ashamed. Put that foot back. There are no fussy city people around, and I like you just as you are. I wouldn't give a red cent for a wife who wasn't a pal as well as a sweetheart. Let's bring Sonny up here some day to see this dam."

"I thought you were ordered to forget your responsibilities," Gay answered, as her foot slipped back into the cool stream.

"I don't regard Sonny as a responsibility—today, anyway. He's a good little chum, just as you are. Do you know, dear, sometimes it comes over me how bleak life would be without you all. Just suppose I had got you over to say good-bye to you that morning!"

Gay looked at him, her eyes brimming with tenderness.

"And you so nearly forgot me, darling!"

Nick stared. He had never told her how true that was. Even now, as she slipped an arm across his shoulders, he felt ashamed at the memory.

"Did you think for a minute that I didn't know?" she questioned gently. "I was in the garden when I saw you come out with that stick and bundle. Could I have misunderstood, after the times we'd planned away something—something went dead in my heart, Nick. It seemed so terrible that you could go like that—that without a word—without even a thought of me, when I loved you more than anything in the whole world."

"You—loved me?"

She smiled at his amazement.

More Than Local Problem

Flight Of Western Farmer Matter Of National Concern

If the farmers of the west have made a mistake in depending too largely on wheat growing a change must be made. But mixed farming cannot be adopted at a moment's notice. In the meantime the inability of the west to sell its wheat surplus is more than a local problem. It is a matter of national concern that affects the prosperity of the east only in lesser degree to that of the west itself.

E. W. Betty, president of the C.P.R., was right when he said that some form of temporary assistance must be worked out. The lack of buying power of the western farmers has a direct effect on economic conditions in the eastern provinces. The problem is not one that can be dismissed as a purely sectional matter in which the east has no concern.

The only question to be decided is as to the best and most effectual method of assistance, and that question must be settled by co-operation between the Federal Government and the provincial governments of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.—Toronto Telegram.

(By Betty Barclay)

BREAD PUDDING DE LUXE

2 cups milk, scalded.

2 tablespoons butter.

1 cup stale bread, cut into 1/4 inch cubes.

1/2 cup sugar.

1/2 teaspoon salt.

1/2 teaspoon vanilla.

1/2 teaspoon almond extract.

2 eggs, slightly beaten.

1 cup coconut, toasted.

Combine milk with butter and bread cubes. Add salt, sugar and flavoring to eggs and beat slightly. Pour milk mixture over egg mixture and pour in coconut. Pour into greased baking dish, place in pan of hot water, bake in moderate oven (350 degree Fahrenheit), 45 to 50 minutes. Serves 6.

COCONUT SALAD DELICIOUS

2 cups cabbage, finely shredded.

1 cup grated pineapple, drained.

1 cup shredded coconut.

1/2 cup mayonnaise.

Dash of salt.

Crisp cabbage by allowing it to stand in ice water. Drain and dry thoroughly. Toss lightly together with remaining ingredients. Serve on crisp lettuce. Garnish with strips of pimento. Serves 6.

India's Greatest Surgeon

Though Retired As a Missionary Sir William Wanless Is Still Working

The many Canadian friends of Sir William Wanless, Kt., M.D., F.R.C.S., will be interested in the fact that though retired as a Canadian missionary of the American Presbyterian Church he has returned to India in connection with the launching of the Sir William Wanless Union Tuberculosis Sanatorium, located on a one-hundred-acre property two miles from Miraj in Western India where the distinguished missionary surgeon spent his life and became noted as probably the most skillful surgeon in all India. It is stated that Sir William throughout his missionary career performed not fewer than ninety-six thousand operations on all classes of people of India. Canada may well be proud of the contribution he has made to the welfare of peoples in other lands through the services of such distinguished missionaries as Sir William Wanless, President O. R. Ayson, Dr. James S. Gale, and others.

Wheat Most Valuable Feed

Which is the most valuable as a feed for livestock, corn or wheat? While the price paid for these two feeds is not precisely the same it is being paid for at the present time that if corn is at one dollar a bushel it would be more economical to buy wheat at a dollar and twelve cents a bushel, indicating that wheat is slightly the more valuable of the two.

Taxis On Credit

Your Name and Address Satisfy Bombay Drivers

Taxis can always be hired on credit in Bombay, reports a traveller. If you have no money with you, you simply give your name and address to the driver and he calls round at your house the next day—or after that not he doesn't bother to do so till some weeks afterwards, to such an extent does the native taxicab trust the British sahib. Once in Bombay an Englishman hired a taxi to drive him to the docks. He went on board a liner and told the taxi-driver to wait while he said goodbye to a friend. But the liner sailed with him. The driver was so convinced of the honesty of his fare that he refused to budge till he came back. He sat steadfastly on the quayside for two and one-half days before the police could persuade him that the sahib was well on his way to England. Even they had to use force to make him go. By that time the fare on the meter was about 160 rupees!

Crying Babies Are Sickly Babies

The well child does not cry. He is laughing and happy all the time. Baby's cry of distress is the only means he has of telling the mother or nurse he is ill. Mothers, you can keep your little ones well and happy by giving them Baby's Own Tablets—the safe and efficient remedy for all childhood ailments.

Baby's Own Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative. They sweeten the stomach, regulate the bowels and thus banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fever and allay the irritation and pain of the cutaneous teeth. They are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Made a Guest At It

Conan Doyle has said that the worst handwriting he ever encountered belonged to James Payn, novelist and some time editor of "Cornhill" magazine. So bad was it, swears Doyle, that some one who could not read a note he got from Payn, took it to a chemist thinking that he—as an expert in deciphering prescriptions—might be able to read it. After contemplating it for awhile the chemist disappeared, and later emerged with a large bottle of medicine.

ROBIN EGGS HERALD SPRING

Residents of Jasper, Alberta, in the heart of the Rockies, are telling each other that spring is a ready here because Vernon Slater, school boy son of a locomotive engineer, while walking on the Cabin Creek trail, discovered three blue robin eggs in a newly made nest in a spruce tree. Although he was unable to find the parent birds, the eggs were still warm.

The robin is the first bird to return to this part of the Rocky mountains in the spring. No previous record exists, however, of its eggs having been discovered before May or June. The unusual mild weather in the main Athabasca Valley, in which no snow has fallen for the past four weeks, is taken to account for the present vagary. That such climatic conditions do not extend farther than a few miles from town is vouched for by Captain Rex Gibson, of Oids, Alberta, who has returned from the Tanguin Valley. While there he travelled on six feet of snow and in company with Joe Weiss, of Jasper, as evidenced by an outstanding Alpine feat in ascending Mount McDowell on skis in seven hours.

LIT THE GOLD FLOW

(By Nellie L. McLaughlin)

I knew that an angel had troubled the waters when I opened this week's issue of the Mandanville "Enterprise" and found the whole first column was poetry, a narrative poem, written and signed by the Editor. It began: "In all the annals of the Enterprise we got our greatest, glad surprise.

A leading citizen, a tough one, too, Who sells us shaving soap and stonach brew, Came in and paid his toll!!

Four years—arrars, One year—advance, Who'll say romance Has fled the human soul?

I have not told The tale complete HE PAID IN GOLD, And asked for no receipt."

As I read on, I was determined to hear the prose version of the story, and two days after I had the good fortune to meet Miriam Bruce, whose husband, George Bruce, has been in the Mayor of Mandanville for two terms, from her I got the story at its source. Two weeks ago George Bruce came home interested in Barker Shop Blues, and sitting at the table leaned his head wearily on his left hand, and with his right he scrued the nut on stew. Miriam could see his thoughts were concerned with nothing as cheerful as mutton stew, and the one before him was a good one, too, embellished with carrots, onions and capers.

Before he even asked the blessing, he began to unload his depression. "France and America are hoarding gold," he said, their vaults are full of it, idle, useless gold, held out of the channels of trade, while the nations of the world suffer and starve.

"The whole system of our economic life is rotten. I don't see any way of escape. Look at our politician! What do they care?" Then he addressed himself to Miriam, sitting opposite; Grandma Bruce, his mother, was at one side of the table; Tommy and Charlie at the other.

"If we had our lives to live over again, Miriam, knowing what we know now, we would never have had the temerity to bring children into this unhappy world!"

"Blah!" said Grandma Bruce in a loud voice. The family not having started to eat could not very well stop eating; but they sat bolt upright and looked in surprise at the bland face of their respected ancestor.

"I said 'blah!' she said, in answer to their looks, "and that's what I mean... Say the blessing, George, and let us get on with our meal, and then we can talk... You talk about not bringing children into the world... Don't heed him, boys, it's a good world, and we're all glad you are here!"

"When you were on the way, George, my big worry was not whether France or America were hoarding gold. It was one much nearer home. I was wondering if the storekeeper would give us credit for a few yards of gray flannel to make you wee dresses, and cotton flannel to make you a set of still more necessary garments, because he was not yet paid for the last lot which your brother Tom was still wearing. But he did. And he was paid, too, in the fullness of time. And here we are!"

"Grandma," said young Tom, looking up from his supper, "Where did you hear 'blah'?"

"I heard you say it dear, and I want to thank you for bringing it home to me. It is a grand word to have when the occasion arises, as it did just now, when our respected father made his statement about not bringing children into the world. I didn't know that I had it; but you can see how the Lord provides, Tommy; a great need brings its own remedy."

George Bruce looked at his mother and smiled.

"I never have a chance to argue with you, mother," he said, "you have me beaten before I begin."

"I am not a great hand in an argument, Geordy," she said, "but I've seen so much real hardship, I cannot stand all this talk that goes on about hard times. Ordinary people now-a-days live better than kings and queens lived a hundred years ago. But I am glad to hear you find fault with the countries that are hoarding gold. Call them all the names you know, and I'll tell you some more good Scotch words that fairly spit. But before we do that, Geordy, tell me this: it's now the New Year—did you buy yourself that new suit you always start the year with?"

"No, I certainly did not. I could not bring myself to spend forty-five dollars for a suit, when I can get by."

"Well, then, don't say too much about hoarders. An order for a suit would hearten little Tibbets, the tailor, and all the little Tibbets. Supposing every one gets the same mean feeling and none of his usual customers buy a suit all year, the Tibbets won't be able to live. What sense is there in that man being left idle, and not able to pay for his groceries? Do you see how that would effect your store? The most of this talk of hard times is in people's minds. Excuse me, Miriam, I am going to leave the table, but don't remove my plate. I am not near done with it. I'll be back."

She returned with a little leather bag in her hand.

"Here are the gatherings of 'fifty years,' she said, as she rolled the contents on the white cloth, bringing a cry of surprise from the boys.

"Granny, it's gold!"

"Thirty pieces of gold, saved for my funeral. But I am not going to save it any longer. There's a lot of posthumous pride in the Scotch masquerading under the cloak of godly independence, and I am laying mine aside here and now. I will no longer hold out my gold from the channel of trade, even if I have to be buried in a covered coffin. I think we'll get the house papered and painted, Miriam, and that hole in the plaster fixed, too, and maybe the floor done. That will spread the work around."

"I can't let you do this, Mother," George said, flushing.

"Try to stop her," cried young Tommy, looking at his grandmother admiringly.

The next day, four of the gold pieces had been spent for wall-paper, and one for paint, which gave the hardware merchant the best day he had had all week. He gave three of them to his clerk on his salary, who went around to the Maypole Grocery, of which George Bruce is the proprietor, and paid his account in full. George Bruce came home with the three gold coins, and presented them to his mother.

"Here, Mother, put them back in the bag for a nest egg."

"Will I now?" said the old lady. "I'll take them, but they are out of the bag once and for all. Here Miriam, go down tomorrow and buy one of the nice dresses we saw in the Trading store. Don't talk of nest eggs, Geordie. Nest eggs are notoriously barren, chicken-hearted, or china-hearted, or just plain bad."

When the work on the house was done, ten more of the coins were placed in the channels of commerce; and everyone in Mandanville knew about the old lady's plan to benefit trade, and there grew up a sort of gentlemen's agreement that the coins would not be changed into bills. Holders proudly exhibited them, and diagrams were drawn in the barber shop on the backs of the calendars, showing how the coins had circulated; at the end of the first week ten business houses had been benefited; the drayman had one coin, the shoemaker one, and even the doctor had one. Miss Cherry, the milliner, had received in payment for hats a gold piece on three occasions, and being a woman of good business sense, advertised a sale, offering any hat in her establishment for five dollars in gold.

George Bruce's order for a suit at the tailor's was followed by so many others that Mr. Tibbets has taken back the two tailcoats he had let go in December, and the paper-hanger says he has not been so busy since the outburst of weddings last summer.

But it was not until the druggist, of his own free will, had gone into the Enterprise office and paid his account in full, and one year in advance, that the Editor was inspired to give the story wings. His poem closes with these words:

"Gold that was held against a grave objective
Has given Mandanville a new perspective."

SAYS RUSSIA WILL BE THE WORLD'S BIGGEST
WHEAT SELLER

Thomas D. Campbell, well known as the largest wheat grower in the United States, has just returned from his second trip to Russia. He tells in Collier's magazine of December 20 of what he saw there. Twice he has gone to Russia at the request of the Soviet government to help lay out their gigantic agricultural program. He has had the best opportunity to observe life on the huge cultivated farms there. He says the solution of American agricultural problems lies not in higher prices, but in scientific production on larger acreages and at reduced costs.

On December 28, 1928, the Soviet Government called for volunteers to form collective groups and offered to send organizers out among the farmers who were desirous of forming collective farms. They also offered to supply the collective farms with good seed and adequate machinery, also with good quality live stock. This offer on the part of the Government came in response to a complaint from the farmers that grain prices were too low. The rulers of Russia believed it would not be possible for them to raise prices but they could make the tremendous difference in the costs of producing agricultural products on Russian farms. Lowering production costs has the same net result as raising prices, the farmer gets more for his work and investment.

By the end of January, 1929, there were 4,200,000 Russian families voluntarily enrolled in the collective farms. By February 20th this number had jumped to 14,000,000. These people among them represented over 300,000,000 acres of highly productive land.

For example, in one locality there were 957 farmers controlling 45,000 acres, who formed themselves into a collective farm. They elected their president and committee of direction under whose supervision and with the help of the Government expert fences were torn down and soil surveys made. Prior to beginning the season's work his or her labor station was allotted to each man and woman, all of whom receive regular wages from the government.

Mr. Campbell advises that as far as he can see the farmers are contented and far better off than they ever were before. They live in better homes, enjoy electric lights and other conveniences they had never dreamed of using. Also due to the improved methods of farming they had nearly three times as much grain for their share of the collective farm as they had formerly considered to be necessary. In addition to this they had wages for their work with which they were enabled to purchase some of the luxuries of life.

"The ultimate result of all this," says Mr. Campbell, "is going to be that Russia will within a few years, probably not more than five or six, be by large odds the greatest producer of wheat in the world."

SOUTH ALBERTA BOARDS OF TRADE MEET AT LETHBRIDGE

Upwards of forty delegates from points between Medicine Hat and Crow's Nest attended the convention of South Alberta boards of trade at Lethbridge on Wednesday of last week, when the following memorial was adopted for presentation to the Alberta government:

To the Honourable:

The Premier of Alberta and
To the Honourable O. L. McPherson, Minister of Public Works.

The undersigned delegates to a meeting of the Associated Boards of Southern Alberta, held at the Marquis Hotel at Lethbridge, the 7th day of January, 1931, with reference to the completion of the Red Trail between Taber and Medicine Hat, hereby submit that the following considerations demand the completion of the graveling of this route during the present year, viz:

(1) Being the original Red Trail which is part of the all Canadian highway it has been more widely advertised and is better known to tourist traffic than any other interprovincial highway. In this connection it may be pointed out that this is part of the original all Canadian trail from Winnipeg through the Rocky Mountains.

(2) That it is the only feasible interprovincial highway going westward which can be economically kept open for all year traffic.

(3) That it most readily gives access to tourist traffic from the United States by all ports of entry.

(4) That it is the shortest route across the province from East to West.

(5) That at a meeting held in Taber in the year 1929, at which representatives of the Associated Boards of Southern Alberta met the Minister of Public Works, it was understood that when work was commenced from Lethbridge easterly, such work would be completed to the eastern boundary with speed that "would surprise" us.

(6) That Waterton Lakes National Park, and other tourist resorts to which the said trail gives access are only in their infancy and the traffic to such resorts is growing at a greater rate than to those longer established and should be encouraged rather than discouraged.

(7) That the said Red Trail passes through the most productive areas of the province and will serve the most populous and prosperous districts as well as the largest irrigation districts of the province.

(8) That this work does not imply the launching of any new program, but rather the completion of a program now nearly complete and where the main object of such program cannot be obtained until completed.

(9) That the B.C. government is now completing the road from Kuskanoek to Nelson, thereby connecting for the first time an all Canadian route via the Red Trail for motor traffic from Winnipeg to Vancouver.

(10) That it is estimated the delegates to this meeting represent at least 100,000 residents of the province who are unanimous in their request for the completion of this road:

Signed on behalf of the communities represented by:

Medicine Hat—Wm. Cousins, Walter Huckle, S. C. Taylor, J. McLean, W. R. Arundell, Lorne Laidlaw, A. P. Burns, Chas. Anderson, and John Mitchell.

Bow Island—R. S. Beattie, F. J. Halpin.

Grassy Lake—W. C. Gilbert and John Leahy.

Burdett—F. A. Lumbard, Chas. Erickson, and H. C. McCalliard.

Taber—D. Mals, B. L. Cooks, A. L. Cannon, L. T. Westlake, R. H. Anderson and J. Harper Prowse.

Lethbridge—A. G. Baillie, R. W. Greenway, J. B. Turney, R. Livingston, R. Winter, R. R. Davidson, R. R. Patterson, B. H. Hoyt, J. W. Bawden, A. B. Hogg, H. G. Long, W. S. Galbraith, Gordon Porter, W. T. Hill, J. S. Rose, P. Gayner and P. C. Hiles.

Macled—Hon. A. J. McLean, J. Swinerton, O. F. Fannett, W. S. Kirk,

and J. A. Melvor.

Cardston—J. S. Low, E. M. Williams, Leroy Card and F. Tanner.

Coleman—Alex. Morrison and R. P. Borden.

Blairmore—W. W. Scott, S. G. Hiams, Leroy Card and F. Tanner. Nothing could show the interest in the completion of the Red Trail more significantly than the fact that delegates were present from 225 miles of the 250 miles the highway stretches across the southern end of the province. And there was the utmost unanimity throughout. No effort was made to condemn the building of any other cross-Alberta highway; all the delegates asked was that the Red Trail, the shortest route to connect the Saskatchewan boundary with the existing gravelled highways in Alberta should not be sidetracked in this year's provincial highway program.

Alex. Morrison, of Coleman, declared that the Crows' Nest Pass people want to see the route completed, believing that it is the shortest between the prairies and the coast, also connecting up with the U. S. highway system. B.C. was keeping its end of the Red Trail open to Crows' Nest, and he urged that Alberta should meet their efforts at Crows' Nest.

W. W. Scott, representing the Blairmore Board of Trade, stated that the towns along the Red Trail had spent money in the past in advertising that route, with the result that the tourist traffic was growing. He believed the association was therefore entitled to consideration from the provincial government.

MEMENTO FOR DEPARTING GOVERNOR-GENERAL AND LADY

Government House, Edmonton.

January 7th, 1931.

On the termination of the Governor General of Canada's term of office it has been customary for the women of Canada to present to the departing Lady of Rideau Hall some fitting memento of her life among us.

No doubt, the desire to do this will be particularly strong in the case of Lady Willingdon, who has shown such sincere interest in the women of Canada and, who is personally known to so many Canadian women, even in the most remote parts of our province.

With this in view, a committee has been formed in Ottawa under the direction of Miss Mildred Bennett, with Lady Borden as Treasurer.

Mrs. Egbert and Mrs. Brownie have been asked to take charge of the collection of the fund in this province. They realize that, owing to conditions, women may not be able to contribute what they would wish, but would like to emphasize that any small amount will show a kindly spirit and interest and will be appreciated.

Will you please send subscriptions to reach Government House, Edmonton, not later than January 20th, and payable to either Mrs. Egbert or Mrs. Brownie. Acknowledgment of all subscriptions will be forwarded from Government House, Edmonton, and a full list of contributions will be sent the National Committee. Remittances should be made by marked cheque or money order.

SMOKING AT THE RINK

The Okotoks Review has the following to say about smoking at hockey games, which is universally applicable: Patrons of the hockey games at the rink are requested not to smoke. Signs to this effect are stuck up but are sometimes disregarded. The majority of the fans are very reasonable in observing rules and regulations, but there is always the occasional individual who thinks laws are made to apply to everybody but himself. Smoking in the rink is not only a nuisance to spectators but also creates a haze in the rink and interferes seriously with the vision and respiration of the players.

CORBIN HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Joyce were invited guests at a dance on Friday evening, given by their many friends in the Corbin district, in honor of their recent marriage. The young people in town took this opportunity to present Mr. and Mrs. Joyce with a handsome floor lamp and a carving set, as a token of their well wishes to the newly-weds. The C.G.T. girls also used this occasion to present Mrs. Joyce, a retired member of their group, with a china tea set.

Every man, woman and child in Corbin has become a hockey fan. At least, you would think as much by the number of people who motored to Blairmore on Saturday night to witness the game between Corbin and the Pass All-Star Cubs. The long trip was well worth the trouble taken, when Corbin witnessed the defeat of the Cubs to the tune of 4-3.

A fast, clean game of hockey was witnessed by several hundred spectators on Sunday, when Coal Creek brought their fast-stepping team here for the first time. The visitors received a big surprise when they were made take the short end of a two-one score by the so-far unbeaten Corbin team. Up until this game, both teams boasted of being unbeaten; now Corbin maintains the honor. After eight minutes of breathtaking rushes by both forward lines, and some wonderful checking by the defense of both teams, Jimmy Joyce carried the puck down the right fence to lay a nice pass to his brother Charlie, who beat the Coal Creek goalie easily. That put extra life into Coal Creek, and the home boys did not slacken up any that you could notice. But the most dangerous rushes were started from the Coal Creek defense, who worked some nice combined attacks with the forwards that were at last rewarded by a counter in which Melburn assisted Atkinson. With the score tied, both teams played carefully till the bell rang. Play opened in the second period with both teams playing a fast, but very careful game, and the goal tenders were only tried by long shots, which they easily turned aside. The goalies were on their toes all through, and not the least interesting part of the play was the sterling qualities displayed by these two players. After breaking up several good plays on the part of Corbin forwards, the visitors finally let Dip Selinsky take a shot from the blue line that glanced off the goalie's stick for the third goal of the game, with only one more minute to play before the bell. The third session was hot and heavy, the visitors going all out for the equalizing counter, and the home boys determined to hold their own. The play, in spite of heavy checking, was very clean. The only penalties being handed out were received by "Mush" Melburn for difference of opinion with Falconer. J. Joyce was pulled off of tipping just as the bell rang. Teams: Coal Creek—Cotton, J. Melburn, R. Snolik, E. Atkinson, R. Johnstone, F. Atherton, L. Atkinson, G. Simpson, H. Atherton, D. Ferguson, Corbin—Uphill, H. Gardiner, J. Falconer, J. Joyce, C. Joyce, D. Selinsky, A. McVey, Fraser and Korman.

Corbin is thoroughly enjoying the continued good weather, and the car road from the town to the main highway is still open.

Among the hockey fans who visited Corbin on Sunday were noticed: Miss Gladys Price and Miss Macdonald, of Coleman. A number of rooters also motored down from Fernie and Coal Creek.

The marriage took place very quietly at Calgary on January 9, of Gwendolyn, only daughter of the late Mr. Thomas Barneval Martin, of Macleod, and Mrs. Martin, to Mr. Emile Jean Paul van der Linden, of Turner Valley, son of Colonel S. J. J. and Mme. van der Linden, of Brussels, Belgium.

A Turnover Tax

Financial journals throughout Canada are discussing probable ways and means whereby the Dominion Government will raise the revenues required to carry on all the services and administrative responsibilities of the Federal Government, meet the charges on the public debt, and balance the national budget. The same question is receiving the close attention of the Prime Minister and his cabinet, and before long will demand consideration by Parliament and the people generally.

It is admitted in all quarters that the Dominion will face a deficit in the operations of government for the year 1930-31; that, instead of the national debt being reduced, it will be increased. In view of this situation, steps must be taken to devise new sources of revenue because no reductions in expenditure that could possibly be made would, in themselves, be sufficient to offset the decline in revenues which has taken place, and which it is forecasted will continue this year.

This is not a party question; it is a national problem to be faced and solved. Canada is not alone in having to face such a condition; other nations are in exactly the same box.

It is estimated that the Dominion's deficit this year will be in the neighborhood of $75,000,000. There have been heavy declines in Customs duties, sales tax receipts, excise tax. The income tax yielded a slight increase, but it was payable on 1929 incomes, which were generally greater than in 1930, so that a drop in this source of revenue next year must be anticipated. Furthermore, inasmuch as it is the Government's policy, approved by the people in the last general election, to cut off some hundreds of millions of imports it follows that Customs duties will show a still greater drop this year.

On the expenditure side of the national ledger increases rather than decreases must be looked for. The unemployment relief bill of $20,000,000 has to be met; Old Age Pensions to be borne solely by the Dominion rather than fifty-fifty with the Provinces, and which will be made effective in all Provinces, means an expenditure of another $20,000,000 or more; the completion of the Trans-Canada Highway will be an expensive undertaking.

So more money must be found, and a fairly large sum at that. In view of the fact that the Sales Tax has been reduced to a mere one per cent.; that Income Tax returns will be smaller; that Customs duties will take a drop as a result of decreased imports and cannot be depended upon in future to yield the major portion of the national revenue, it is being suggested in Eastern Canada that both the Sales Tax and the Income Tax be abolished in their entirety, and that a new tax, a tax on turnover, be created.

This proposal is deserving of study and should be the subject of discussion by all the people, because it is a tax that will be paid by everybody. It has the merit that no one will be able to escape from it. The other question is, will it be equitable to all in relation to the ability of each and all to pay.

A turnover tax means a tax on every business transaction that takes place in Canada. A Customs tax applies only to articles imported into Canada from other countries; an Excise tax is imposed on only a number of specified articles, intoxicating liquors, tobacco, matches, bank cheques, etc.; the Sales tax is levied on a limited number of transactions. But a turnover tax would mean the levy of the tax on each individual transaction, whether it be on the raw materials sold to the manufacturer, on the manufactured article sold the jobber or wholesaler, on the same article again when sold by the wholesaler or jobber to the retailer, and again when sold by the retailer to the ultimate consumer. It would mean a tax on railroads, telegrams, telephone; it is a tax which hotels and restaurants would have to levy; you would pay it to the barber, to the taxi driver, to the newspaper publisher, to the theatre. And so on all along the line every time an article was sold by some person and purchased by another.

The annual turnover of business in Canada amounts to many billions of dollars,—just how large the amount is it is difficult to even estimate. Even a very small tax, a trifling tax, one per cent., one-half of one per cent., one-quarter of one per cent., would yield an enormous revenue. But where an article passes through many hands or avenues of trade before it reaches the final consumer, even a small tax on each turnover might mean a fairly heavy charge in the end.

Possibly certain exemptions would be provided, but the moment exemptions are provided possibilities for evasion of the tax arise; also the danger of discrimination in favor of one class of people, business or industry. The whole subject is intensely interesting, and, as stated, deserving of close study and full discussion.

Was Noted Scientist

Dr. Henry Ami, Canadian Archaeologist, Dies in France

Dr. Henry Ami, one of Canada's outstanding scientists, died recently at Menton, France, according to news received at his Ottawa home. An archaeologist and paleontologist of international reputation, Dr. Ami started the world of science a few years ago by his discovery of evidence tending to show that the Eskimo races, now found exclusively in the Canadian Arctic, at one time lived in France.

In recent years, Dr. Ami divided his time between France and Canada. He was the founder and leader of the Canadian School of Prehistoric History in France, through which he made the archaeological excavations at Dordonne, upon which he based his theory of the early life of the Eskimos. Dr. Ami is survived by his widow, three grandchildren, Nicholas (H. Slater), Clara and Jeanne-Amie Slater, the cause of a brother, William Ami, of the University of Manitoba, Winnipeg.

Woman's Fortitude

Forces Herself To Smile Through Pain

"I never seem to find time to rest," says many an overworked housewife. Under smiles and forced cheerfulness, she conceals weariness and nervous depression; headaches and backaches. Often she is in real pain, but still refuses to give up. This very fortitude is apt to be her undoing. If she continues to resist the signals of distress she will sooner or later suffer a serious breakdown.

A noted doctor has stated that nine-tenths of the ills of womanhood are due to poor blood. That means, the cause of the low spirits, the poor appetite and palpitation that make life a burden for so many. There is no need, however, for women to suffer in this way. All the ills of womanhood can be banished by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These Pills create an abundance of new, rich red blood, and this new blood will bring strength and vitality to nervous, overworked women. The Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Excavations In Mesopotamia

Interesting Discoveries Reported Of Traces Of Ancient Civilization

Excavation in Ur of the Chaldees in Mesopotamia, have uncovered proof of the existence of buildings and a civilization there prior to the flood described in the Bible, it was announced in London, England.

The announcement was made by officials of the joint expedition of the University of Pennsylvania and the British Museum, headed by C. L. Woolley.

The excavations into the ruins of Ur, it was declared, proved the existence of a civilization in the land which the flood actually covered.

The scientists also discovered interesting tombs of great kings of the third dynasty, about 2400 to 2300 B.C., the period disclosed.

Cavalry Honors

Units Of Canadian Cavalry Brigade Awarded Battle Honors

Units of the Canadian cavalry brigade are awarded their battle honors in a list published by the Department of National Defence here Saturday. The Royal Canadian Dragoons, a regiment of the permanent force, and the Port Garry Horse, are included in the distribution, which differs somewhat from that of the infantry battalions of the Canadian corps. Up to the end of 1915 the Canadian cavalry regiments served as "corps troops," taking their turn in the trenches along with the infantry; but early in 1916 they were withdrawn and transferred to one of the British cavalry divisions.

The honors include "Basentin," 1916; "Poderea," 1916; "Cambria," 1917; "St. Quentin," 1918, and "Beauvervoir," 1918.

Other units whose battle honors are announced are:

The Manitoba Mounted Rifles, the 1st Cavalry Machine Gun Squadron, and the machine gun squadron of the Canadian Cavalry Brigade, of Winnipeg, Man., the Manitoba Rifles, of Fortage in Prairie, Man.; the 14th Canadian Light Horse, of Shannan, Sask.; the Seaforth Highlanders of Canada, which perpetuates the 72nd Canadian Infantry Battalion.

Find Ancient Tomb

King and Queen Who Ruled In Ireland 2,000 Years Ago

The remains of a king and queen, believed by experts to have reigned from 1,800 to 2,000 years ago, have been found on Sheedee, a mountain near Carrick-on-Shannon, Ireland, says the Sunday Times.

The skeletons, lying side by side, were discovered in a vault the entrance of which was barred by a solid block of dressed masonry weighing more than 10 tons. Their heads were facing the former royal seat of Tara, where Irish kings were supposed to have been crowned in pagan days. Historians believed they are members of a dynasty whose origin has been lost in the mists of antiquity.

Further exploration is being carried out, as treasure and armor are believed concealed in another chamber in the interior of the mountain. The ruins are being guarded night and day by civic guards.

Resourceful Carpenters

Men In Florida Insured Against Starvation Anyway

When work fell off, late in the past summer, leaving 150 members of the carpenters' union of Lake Worth, Fla., facing a jobless winter, they leased a 50-acre farm, and those without jobs began working on it at farm laborers' pay. This created more building jobs for the remaining carpenters by decreasing the number seeking employment. Today the farm has 20,000 cabbages, 10,000 egg plants, and large patches of potatoes and beans coming along nicely. "We won't starve, anyway," says Ralph Osborn, president of the union. "If we can't sell our stuff at a profit, we'll eat it."

1. That a policeman blows his whistle 100,000,000 times louder than necessary.
2. That the blast of a steamboat siren is 100,000,000 times louder than necessary.
3. That an automobile horn is sounded 50,000,000 times louder than is necessary, and on a clear day can be heard ten miles away.
4. That dogs bark too loudly.
5. That boys shout too loudly.

U. S. CANADA AIR ROUTE OPENS ON FEBRUARY 2

Washington, D.C.—Two new international air mail routes, one linking equatorial heat and Arctic cold, the other involving trans-oceanic travel hazards, were being worked out by postal officials.

Assistant Postmaster-General Glover announced the completed schedule for the United States-Canada route, to open February 2. This will give a continuous Chicago-to-Winnipeg service, with Milwaukee, La Crosse, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Fargo, Grand Forks and Pembina as the stops.

The St. Paul-to-Winnipeg leg completes an 11,000-mile north-to-south stretch, reaching from the Yukon, where mails have hitherto been carried by dog team, through temperate and torrid zones to temperate again, terminating at Buenos Aires, South America, a three-week air trip.

Mr. Glover said he expected to participate in the ceremonies of opening the route.

Postmaster-General Brown had before him the revised specifications for the European route by way of the Azores. Several weeks ago, bids were called for, but the advertisements were withdrawn because of ambiguity.

The newly-drafted advertisement now only awaits the postmaster-general's approval to be released. Mr. Brown said bids will be opened 60 days after the advertisement appears.

Saskatchewan Legislature

Third Session Of Seventh Legislature Is Formally Opened

Regina, Sask.—The third session of the seventh legislature of Saskatchewan was formally opened Thursday afternoon, January 8, by Sir Frederick W. G. Haultain, official administrator of the province in the absence of Lieutenant-Governor H. W. Newlands.

A salute of 21 guns was fired from the cannon along the lake front, and shortly afterwards Sir Frederick Haultain and his Mounted Police escort arrived at the Parliament Buildings. Hereby: Lt.-Col. A. G. Styles, aide-de-camp to the lieutenant-governor, Sir Frederick entered the chamber at 3:05 p.m., and proceeding to the dais, read out the Speech from the Throne.

The Speech from the Throne for the most part consisted of a review of the government's record during the past year, and forecasted little new legislation. It stated that the 1930 power transmission line construction program will be continued. Problems confronting the agricultural industry are to be dealt with during the session, but no intimation was given as to the nature of the legislation to be introduced. Nor was anything said about the proposed highway program.

In connection with public health, the Speech announced that an institution to segregate mental defectives from the regular mental hospitals was being planned, and also that the government intended to take combative measures against the disease trachoma.

Shipping Into B.C. Decreased

Vancouver, B.C.—Final figures of deep-sea movement into this port in 1930 are now completed by the Vancouver Merchants' Exchange and show a total of 1,138 arrivals, of 4,474,225 net tons. This is a reduction as compared with the two preceding years. In 1929 the total was 1,285 vessels and 4,806,649 net tons, and in 1928 it was 1,325 vessels and 5,668,002 net tons.

Reduction In Prices

Ottawa, Ont.—Hon. G. D. Robertson, Minister of Labor, expressed satisfaction at reductions in the price of commodities, including breakfast foods, that had been effected recently as a result of representations made by the labor department. The probe being conducted by the department under the Combines Investigation Act into the price of bread is expected to be concluded shortly.

Victims Of Flood

Lisbon, Portugal.—An entire family was buried under the ruins of a home at Tondella, Portugal, which collapsed under the pressure of flood waters. The food situation throughout Northern Portugal, already serious, was reported to be growing more menacing.

Professional men of Italy have agreed to reduce their fees.

Wheat Market Menace

Says Russia Can Supply the World With Wheat

Washington, D.C.—Chairman Fish of the special House Communist investigation committee said in the House recently, the use of the United States farm machinery in Russia would do away with the world market for United States wheat.

Production of Russian wheat will be so greatly increased by the use of this machinery, he said, that Russia will be able to supply the world.

He asked the House to approve his resolution by which the Red Cross would distribute some of the wheat held by the Farm Board to the hungry. This, Fish added, would decrease the surplus in the United States and prevent a drop in the price.

FRANCE PAYS FINAL TRIBUTE TO WAR HERO

Paris, France.—France, in a final tribute of love and respect to the "Savior" of Paris, gave Marshal Joffre a national funeral which in its grandeur, reminded of that "Day of Ashes" when the body of Napoleon Bonaparte was brought back from St. Helena.

The body of the victor of the Marne lay, like that of Napoleon, under the great dome of the Invalides. In a disguised sacrilege of the Chapel of St. Louis, dedicated to the old crusader king, it was placed there so that Madame Joffre might pray beside her soldier husband in silence.

Some months from now the body will be transferred to "Chaumont-Groves," the marshal's country home, where it will entomb in a mausoleum.

Church and state united to make the last rites of France's loved soldier a full expression of the Republic's gratitude and respect. Tens of thousands of French people who filled the gray old cathedral of Notre Dame and the million or more who lined the route of the cortege from the cathedral to the Invalides testified to the love that Paris bore for "Papa" Joffre.

There was not a foot of standing room at Notre Dame when the arrival of President Doumergue signaled the beginning of the Requiem Mass, shortened at Joffre's own wish. The highest officials of the government were here in sombre garb and representatives of many nations, many of them attending as the personal representatives of rulers and sovereigns. Monsignor Jules Marie Tessier, bishop of Schone-Sur-Marne, read the absolution and gave the final blessing.

Outside in the square in front of the cathedral the cortege formed. Republican Guardsmen in the lead.

On either side of the coffin marched companies of infantry, and behind the marshal's immediate family, marched the president, members of the government, and the diplomatic corps.

An orderly led "Sorcières," the marshal's horse, caparisoned in black. There was intense silence as the cortege moved slowly up the Rue de Rivoli to the Place de la Concorde and the Grand Palace, where it turned and crossed the Alexander III bridge to the Great Square in front of the Invalides. There Louis Barthou, Minister of War, paid the government's eulogy.

He hailed Joffre as a "savior of world liberty" and said that he was there to "voice the unanimous gratitude of the nation."

After the funeral oration the marshal's body was borne solemnly to the sacristy where it will remain until the mausoleum at Lovenceaux is ready.

Mourning for Marshal Joffre was expressed in all the theatres which remained open. Simultaneously each, at 9 o'clock, an actor appeared on the stage and read the marshal's famous Marne battle order of the day in which he called on the French army to die rather than retreat. A minute's silence was asked, and as it ended the orchestra sounded Taps.

British Battle Fleet On Cruise

Portsmouth, England.—The British battleship "Nelson" has started on a cruise during which she will visit the United States fleet at Colon, Panama, February 28. The "Nelson," flying the flag of Admiral Sir Michael Hedges, will head a special squadron of seven new battleships and cruisers, the finest Great Britain has ever sent to the West Indies. The squadron will visit each British possession there.

FIVE ITALIAN FLYERS KILLED IN TAKE-OFF

Bolama, Portuguese Guinea, Africa.—Five Italian aviators died and three others were injured at the start of the great aviation adventure which carried 10 seaplanes safely from this point on the West African coast to Brazil.

The Stefani News Agency, official Italian press service, said that two planes crashed shortly after the take-off.

Two others which were forced to land on the ocean, while General Italo Balbo, took the ten remaining ships safely into Natal, were taken in charge by Italian naval vessels. The Stefani Agency said both were expected to be towed to Gerando Noronha, Brazilian penal island, not far from Natal.

This official announcement by the Stefani Agency clears up the confusion which has existed since Gen. Balbo and his ten ships skimmed to rest at Natal after a speedy trip of 17 hours, 15 minutes yesterday. First reports said that 12 ships left Bolama with two of them landing at sea en route, but later despatches from various sources asserted that two had not been able to take off. The official report shows that 14—two of them were repair and replacement units not scheduled to make the trip originally—took off.

Of the two which met disaster, Captain Renango took up one from the water, but it dived sharply after reaching an altitude of only about 50 yards. The men killed, a sergeant-major acting as mechanic, was riding above the right pontoon, which was shoved upward and wrecked when the plane dropped to the surface. Captain Renango, another officer acting as co-pilot, and the radio operator, were injured.

The other unfortunate ship, commanded by Captain Boer, flew all right for about 10 minutes after the take-off, but suddenly was forced to land at full speed. So sharply did the heavy seaplane slip down upon the ocean, that it broke out and burned to death the four occupants, Captain Boer, Lieutenant Barbicini, Sergeant Mechanic Nardin, and Radio Operator Basilicini. The accidents were attributed to the extremely heavy loads carried.

Postpones Flight

Any Johnson, British Girl Flyer, Will Await More Favorable Weather

Warsaw, Poland.—Any Johnson, the British girl flyer, has postponed her flight to China until more favorable weather, which she does not expect to have before spring.

She will leave Warsaw by train for Moscow, where she expects to meet Soviet personages interested in her attempt and hopes to get full information necessary for her flight across the Ural Mountains and Siberia.

She expects to return to Warsaw this week, by which time her plane, damaged when it was forced down at Amlin, near here, will have been repaired.

Deaths From Railway Accidents

Ottawa, Ont.—Thirty-four persons were killed and 242 injured during October, 1930, in railway accidents on Canadian lines, according to a return issued by the board of railway commissioners.

1930 All-Lines Champions

W. T. Warren (left), captain of the Toronto Freight Office First Aid Team of the Canadian Pacific Railway, shown receiving the Lord Shaghnessy Challenge Trophy from W. M. Neal, general manager of the railway's western lines. Toronto Freight Office won the coveted trophy when as winners of eastern lines championship, they defeated the winners of the western lines championship, Weston Shops, at Winnipeg, in December. The Shaghnessy Trophy is emblematic of the Canadian Pacific All-Lines First Aid Championship and was won last year by the C. P. R. Police team.

Saskatchewan Village Has Disastrous Fire

Business Section Of Mayfair Is Practically In Ruins

Saskatoon, Sask.—The explosion of a lamp leaves the village of Mayfair on the new Speers-Rabbit Lake branch, northwest of Saskatoon, with most of its business places in ruins. Before the fire could be checked two general stores, the Bank of Toronto building, and a Chinese restaurant, were gutted. An early estimate sets the damage at around $30,000.

David Cunningham was about to retire when the explosion of a lamp in his store quickly spread rapidly and despite desperate efforts of the villagers who worked a bucket brigade, F. W. Allenby's store and post office, the bank and restaurant were enveloped in flames. Without any fire equipment the villagers tore down an implement office and so stopped any further spread of flames.

Mayfair, which is 22 miles north of Speers, was established only two and a half years ago when the new branch line went through that territory.

Provinces Pay Five Per Cent.

Ottawa Assumes Bulk Of Cost Of Old Age Pensions

Winnipeg, Man.—The Dominion Government in future will pay 95 per cent. of the cost of old age pensions, it was revealed by John Bracken premier of Manitoba.

Mr. Bracken in commenting on the western premiers' conference here with Prime Minister R. B. Bennett, disclosed that assurance had been given by Mr. Bennett that the provinces would be called upon to pay only 5 per cent. of the old age pensions charges as compared with the 50 per cent. now contributed.

Plane Links Pacific Dominions

Wellington, N.Z.—Guy Menzies, young Sydney aviator, made the first light plane flight between Australia and New Zealand. He took Charles Kingsford-Smith's "Southern Cross Jr.," over the 1,200 miles between Sydney and Westland in 13 1/2 hours. He came down in a swamp near Ross, damaging the plane slightly.

Canada Scholarship Fund

Large Amount Being Subscribed To Bring British Graduates Here

Montreal.—Subscription of $500,000 is now being made in Canada and England, to be known as the "Canada Scholarship Fund," to bring British public or secondary school graduates to Canada for their university education and subsequent entrance to Canadian life.

Canada's allotment of the fund is half the total, most of which has already been pledged upon condition that a similar amount is raised in Great Britain, according to an announcement made today at McGill University.

E. W. Beatty, K.C., is the chairman of the Canadian committee which also comprises Sir Arthur Currie, principal and vice-chancellor of McGill University.

Brig.-Gen. V. W. Odium, of Vancouver, and Dr. R. C. Wallace, president of the University of Alberta, are members of the committee.

A MEASURE OF HOME RULE FOR INDIA PROBABLE

London, England.—Hindus, Moslems and Europeans of India have joined in support of the scheme of home rule for India, which was laid before the round-table conference some days ago by Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru. The same plan, in its essentials, was accepted by Lord Reading on behalf of the British Liberal delegates, but was received by the British Conservative delegates coldly and non-committally.

Clavin Jones, president of the European Association of India, before the conference committee, described the present government of India as hopeless and humiliatingly weak. The country was drifting into chaos, he said. He could see no way out but to give a larger measure of responsibility to the Indian legislature.

Sir Bhupendra Mitra, one of India's leading financial experts, thought no greater safeguards should be imposed on the Indian government than were imposed on Canada when she was created a Dominion. Sir Bhupendra, indeed, termed the new administration "the Dominion government of India."

M. A. Jinnah, a prominent Moslem barrister, declared he was under no misapprehension that India was not going to get either Dominion status or full responsible government. He strongly argued, however, that some of the proposed safeguards were unnecessary.

"It is very commonly said in England," Jinnah added, "that we must either rule India or get out." Let me tell you, you can neither rule India nor get out. Are you going to meet the situation that has arisen in India or not? I say that it will indicate an utter bankruptcy of British statesmanship if you do not meet the situation before you leave."

Jinnah criticized the attitude of Sir Samuel Hoare, the Conservative spokesman. "Sir Samuel said that he would take a non-committal attitude. That was the only contribution he could make to the discussion," he said.

The situation in India was thus summed up by Jinnah:

"There is the position in India: One strong body stands for complete independence. Another solid body stands for Dominion status. Now we have come to you and we say: Are you going to agree to that measure of responsibility which will win over to your decisions the large bulk of these politically untied people, so that they will say 'Now we have got something which is worth something; now we have something substantial to work for?'"

Sir C. P. Aiyar also pleaded for responsible government, saying he believed the viceroy should have power to govern in case of a complete constitutional breakdown, but that the ordinary machinery should be left to handle the situation otherwise.

Sir Sultan Ahmed, Moslem barrister, expressed hopes that the British Conservatives in time would come to agree with Lord Reading. Liberal spokesman, in acceptance of the Sapru scheme of responsible government. He also declared the Indian response to Lord Reading's speech had been electric, and Bombay had been particularly pleased.

Warm tribute to Lord Willingdon, the newly-appointed viceroy, for his attitude while Governor of Madras some years ago, was paid by Sir C. P. Aiyar. He remarked that Lord Willingdon had taken all the ministers and the legislature into his confidence, and as a result had secured their willing co-operation.

WIDER TRADE WITH AUSTRALIA IS ANTICIPATED

Victoria, B.C.—Hon. Parker Moloney, minister of markets and transport for Australia, said he would recommend the Australian cabinet to "go the limit" in diverting to Canada trade which was going to foreign countries and which could come to this dominion, in an address here recently.

Mr. Moloney said he was leaving Canada with the highest hopes and expectations for the negotiations he had conducted at Ottawa.

"What we have done at Ottawa will, in my opinion, culminate in a trade treaty which will be of lasting benefit to both dominions," he said.

"I believe what we have done at Ottawa will have a great psychological effect upon the next Imperial conference in Ottawa," he added. "Many others will want to fall in line with us."

Mr. Moloney attended a memorial service held in the cathedral here for Marshal Joffre.

He called upon the provincial government and while no announcement was made, it was understood the conference was satisfactory. British Columbia's desire for a lumber preference was believed to have been discussed. Mr. Moloney also continued conference with the Australian Fruit Growers, who hope to build up a market in Australia for British Columbia fruit products.

Demonstration Train

Agriculture College Facilities Being Carried To Farmers Over

Winnipeg, Man.—With a view to carrying a college of agriculture facilities to the farmers of North Eastern Saskatchewan, the Canadian Pacific Railway in conjunction with the extension department of the college of agriculture, University of Saskatchewan, is supplying, equipping and moving demonstration and lecture cars especially dealing with poultry and dairying.

Under the supervision of W. H. Boyle and C. E. Thomas of the University of Saskatchewan and three lecturers, the trains left Saskatoon early Tuesday, January sixth, for the first meeting at Ristow, the same day. The train consisted of demonstration and lecture cars, the former containing materials for demonstration purposes for agriculturists interested in poultry and dairying. No livestock or seed is being carried for sale.

A wide range of topics will be discussed, care of poultry, best housing methods, killing and market preparation and, in the dairy section, care and feeding of milch cows, making a cow pay her status, testing cows and handling milk and cream.

The train will tour the whole of North Eastern Saskatchewan served by Canadian Pacific trackage and will travel as far east as Breckenridge and leaving on January 13, will February 13, returning to Gowan February 17th, and travelling south via Dugal, Strasburg, Bullock, Balcarres, Neudorf, March 6, to Stockholm, thence back via Imperial and Renown, concluding the tour at Young, March 19th.

Canadian Is Chosen

New York, N.Y.—Position occupied by Canada in the development of radio communication was recognized here in the election of Commander C. P. Edwards, Canadian director of radio, as vice-president of the Institute of radio engineers. The institute is an international organization with 6,000 members.

Referring to the recent Blairmore-Pincher hockey game at Pincher Creek, the Echo says: Blairmore looked good and although weakened through the loss of Dickson, Kemp and McVey to the Turner Valley Imperials, they will no doubt take some beating in the provincial play-offs. Their first string forward line of McKay, P. Anderson and Tony Vejprava are working nicely together and is every bit as strong as last year. Their defense is intact with Bill Johnson and Manson in old time form. Manson did not don a uniform in this game, but his position was ably taken care of by Vangotsmoven. Makin, in goal for the Cats, turned in a nice game and looks a worthy successor to Dave Kemp.

During the past year—forty-seven miles of streets were paved in Montreal at an outlay of $3,346,916, and twenty-five miles of city lanes were also paved at a cost of $972,264, making a total of $4,319,180.

Calgary Maroons were decisively outclassed by the Turner Valley-Okotoks Imperials at Okotoks on Saturday night, losing by an eight-to-two score. Commenting on the game, the Albertan reporter states: McVey boosted his scoring average by beating Taylor four times and assisting with another goal. He played a smart game, and being one of the cleanest players in the league, naturally is very popular with the fans. At the moment, I cannot think of any fitting superlatives to describe the marvelous play of the first string Imperials' forward line, consisting of McVey, Dickson and Mackie. It was worth going a long way to see these three boys play on Saturday, and I herewith extend my sympathy to anyone who missed that treat.

A sitting of the District Court was held here this week, presided over by His Honor Judge MacDonald, of Macleod. A number of applications for naturalization were disposed of, also several small debt cases. The case of Rex versus Long Soon resulted in conviction and a fine of $50 and costs. Long Soon was charged with being in possession of "works of art." Legal lights in attendance at the court were: J. E. Gillis, S. G. Bannan, R. F. Barnes and Crown Prosecutor J. D. Matheson.

Mattson has gone to the discard as a referee, as far as Blairmore is concerned. He held excellent check on officials, but appeared scared to check up Coleman on their wholesale tripping. Two attempts by Blairmore to retaliate in self defense were awarded the penalty.

Simultaneously with the crushing of the Coleman Canadians by the Blairmore Bears with a four-two score came a similar slam to the Turner Valley-Okotoks Imperials at the hands of the Bronks at Calgary. Killing two birds at one shot, we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

It was a treat to witness a return of the great old-time interest in hockey. The Coleman arena was packed to the west fence and hundreds of Scotchmen filled the space from there to the entrance and the holes in the sidewalls. Upwards of nine hundred people were there and all enjoyed the speed displayed by both teams.

Robert Gray returned Sunday night from a visit to his family at Vancouver. While at the coast, he had several opportunities to see Seattle in action and to meet Dave Kemp and Joliet Houghbreggs, former Blairmore material, who are now starring with the coast team. Mr. Sangster accompanied Mr. Gray on the round trip.
